

KAYLA KRURNOWSKI

ABOUT ME

Currently a design student looking for experiences to leverage my creativity, as well as strengthen my skills in areas of design such as graphic design, UI/UX, and web design.

A fine artist interested in the intersection of fine, studio arts with design.

EXPERIENCE

Private Arts Tutor - February 2021 to present

- one on one instruction with a young student
 - leveraged basic art techniques along with student creativity to create basic projects.
 - high level review of different art applications such as Photoshop to help student expand creativity.

Art Camp Counselor - Summer 2019/2020

- created demonstrations to help young students understand artistic concepts.
 - taught students artistic techniques through looking at the work of old masters.
 - helped students one on one with the specific struggles they had with their art pieces.

Michaels Arts and Crafts - Cashier - 2019 to 2020

- created a positive experience for costumers.
- provided recommendations on art supplies based on customers needs.
- demonstrated specific products for costumers to aide in decisions.
